

Hate Among Us EXPERTS COPY

Brian Levin, Esq., Director of the Center for the Study of Hate & Extremism, CSU San Bernadino, has written and edited many books, scholarly articles, and training manuals on hate crimes and extremism.

DervisHizarci, Educator, KlgA, the Kruezberger Initiative Against Antisemitism, is a native Berliner. He believes that open and empathetic dialogue enhances education and confronts ignorance and hatred.

Doron Ezickson, Director of ADL's Washington D.C. Regional office, works tirelessly to stop the defamation of the Jewish people and ensure all humans have a right to fair treatment and justice under the law.

Dr. Alan Mendoza is the Founder & Executive Director of the Henry Jackson Society which serves to advance both democracy and our inherent human rights, while combating extremism across borders and political party lines.

Dr. Charles Asher Small is a prominent scholar and public speaker, and the Founder and Director of the Institute for the Study of Global Antisemitism, an international interdisciplinary research center that uses a contemporary focus to study antisemitism.

Dr. Mehnaz Afridi, Director of the Holocaust, Genocide & Interfaith Education Center at Manhattan College, works with students, the community, and survivors of the Holocaust.

Dr. Robert Rozett, Director of the Yad Vashem Libraries and Senior Historian in the International Institute for Holocaust Research has authored countless articles and critical historical texts.

Ellie Lederhendler, Professor of Modern Jewish History at Hebrew University of Jerusalem has focused his research on migration studies, Yiddish culture, and modern Jewish history in Europe and the United States in the 19th and 20th centuries. He has authored several books.

Gilad Kabilo, Public Affairs Director for the international education organization, StandWithUs. His diverse professional interests has led him down multifaceted paths as a writer, commentator and strategist.

Malcolm Hoenlein, Executive Vice Chairman and CEO of the Conference of Presidents of Major Jewish Organizations, has been the recipient of many awards, including the city of Jerusalem's highest tribute the Trustee of Jerusalem award.

Mark Weitzman, Director of Government Affairs at the Simon Wiesenthal Center, is an award-winning author/editor who has served as a board member, advisor, and representative for several important organizations.

Michael Signer, the Former Mayor of Charlottesville, Virginia, now proudly serves his citizens as a member of City Council. He has written two books, published various essays and articles, and served on many organizational and governmental boards.

Sharon Nazarian now proudly serves as the Senior Vice President of International Affairs for the Anti-Defamation League. Previous to holding this position, she was active in foreign policy, philanthropy, and academia.